2 PURPOSE AND APPLICATION

2.1 Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to protect and enhance the use of 5G's Services and Systems for the benefit of all customers and end users, while at the same time ensuring overall compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

2.2 Application

This Policy applies to all Services supplied by 5G including Internet and hosting Services. It is a condition of 5G supplying Services to a Customer that the Customer complies with this Policy.

3 PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

3.1 Responsible use

The Customer must use the Services supplied by 5G responsibly, This includes in particular Internet and hosting Services.

3.2 Unlawful or improper use and interference

The Customer must not use the Services in any way that is unlawful or interferes with the use of 5G's Systems or the rights of third parties (including other providers and users). In particular, the Customer must not use any Services or any of 5G's Systems in a way that:

- 3.2.1 is unlawful or induces unlawful activity;
- 3.2.2 accesses, downloads, transmits, disseminates, stores or posts illegal, abusive, deceptive, obscene, defamatory, offensive, threatening or otherwise inappropriate content or materials;
- 3.2.3 could interfere with or infringe the rights of others, including any intellectual property rights or rights to privacy;
- 3.2.4 could interfere with, degrade or deny service to, impair the use of, or subvert the security or privacy of: 5G's Systems, data or information; or those of another person, unless the Customer has, as applicable, 5G's or such other person's written consent to do so; or
- 3.2.5 attempts to manipulate or bypass any limitations on the Service by any means.

3.3 Use in accordance with intended supply

The Customer must not use the Services supplied by 5G in a manner not intended or contemplated by 5G when agreeing to supply the Services to the Customer including running a telemarketing business or call centre, re-supplying or reselling the Services, wholesale of any Service (e.g. transit, refill or aggregate domestic or international traffic) on 5G's network and abnormal or excessive use of back to base services.

4 CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 Rules and guidelines

The Customer must adhere to the rules, guidelines or agreements applicable to search engines, subscription web services, chat areas, bulletin boards, web pages, applications, or other services that are accessed from a 5G branded website.

4.2 Security and updates

The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the systems and machines that connect to and use the Services are secure. This includes having in place the requisite patches, ensuring that updates are promptly installed on all operating systems and changing default passwords regularly.

4.3 Responsibility for material

The Customer is responsible for all material created, hosted, posted, downloaded or uploaded from the Customer's systems and machines, including all Customer Content. 5G is not responsible for:

- 4.3.1 any material created, hosted, posted, downloaded or uploaded by the Customer or any third parties;
- 4.3.2 the content of any websites (other than its own) that are hosted on or accessible using 5G's Systems. Links to third party websites are provided for navigation purposes only.

4.4 Responsibility for Personnel and End Users

The Customer must ensure any person who uses or accesses the Services does not conduct or engage in any of the activities prohibited by this Policy. Any breach by an End User, a member of the Customer Group or Customer's Personnel shall be deemed to be a breach by the Customer.

5 COMPLIANCE WITH CODES

5G is subject to a number of Codes of Practice (Codes) including the Internet Industry Codes of Practice registered with the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA). The Codes set out how internet service providers, such as 5G, and email service providers must address the sources of Spam within their own networks. They also require internet service providers and email service providers to give End Users information about how to deal with Spam, and informed choice about their filtering options. The Customer must take such action as 5G reasonably requires assisting 5G to comply with its obligations under the Codes.

6 ENFORCEMENT

6.1 Monitoring

While not obligated to monitor and perform investigations, 5G may monitor use of Services and Systems and may investigate breaches of this Policy or misuse of any Service.

6.2 Remedial action

If 5G believes there has been a breach of this Policy, 5G may take such remedial action as it considers appropriate. 5G may also take remedial action if a Law requires it to do so or Government Authority requests 5G to do so. Depending on the severity and effect of the breach, the types of remedial action we may in our full discretion take include any or a combination of the following:

- 6.2.1 giving the Customer a warning that any repetition of the activity or conduct will result in 5G immediately terminating or suspending the Services;
- 6.2.2 reporting the activities or conduct to relevant authorities;
- 6.2.3 if the Customer Service involves 5G publishing, hosting or making available material or content provided or selected by the Customer, removing or disabling access to that material or content; and
- 6.2.4 immediately terminating, limiting, restricting or suspending the Services.

In particular, our right to terminate or suspend the Services includes, but is not limited to, suspension or termination in response to infringements of copyright in accordance with 5G's policy for dealing with this type of activity.

6.3 Notification

5G will usually attempt to notify the Customer before it suspends or terminates Service if it is reasonably possible to do so. However, any failure on the part of 5G to notify the Customer will not affect any such termination or suspension or create any liability for 5G.

7 CHANGES TO THE POLICY

5G may change or modify the terms of this Policy at any time and these changes will be effective when posted on 5G's website. The Customer will be deemed to have accepted any changed or additional terms if the Customer continues to use the Services after such changes to the Policy are posted to our website. The Customer should review this Policy from time to time to ensure that they are kept updated on any changes.

8 REPORTING OF BREACHES OF THIS POLICY

Please send the details of any actual or suspected violations of this Policy to 5G at sales@5gn.com.au
